

Privacy policy

Use of this website by you constitutes acceptance by you of this Privacy Policy. If you do not wish to accept this Privacy Policy, please leave this website immediately.

The purpose of this policy is:

- to assure you that we recognise and fully respect the privacy and personal data of the visitors to this website and
- to explain what personal information we collect from this website and how we ensure its' best protection.

This privacy policy governs this website at <http://www.hamer-technology.co.uk> . Other sites to which this website may be linked are not covered by this policy.

This privacy policy covers only information which is collected by Hamer Technology from this website and its website at <http://www.hamer-technology.co.uk>.

Data protection

Hamer Technology complies with the Data Protection Act 1998. It is the data controller and sole owner of the personal data collected on this website and on the website at <http://www.hamer-technology.co.uk>

Hamer Technology does not sell, share or transfer this information except as set out in this privacy policy.

We use up-to-date industry procedures to keep personal data as safe and secure as possible and to protect against loss, unauthorised disclosure or access.

You can request a copy of the details that we hold about you. A small fee may be payable.

Registration and registration information

When you register on this website you will automatically be registered on our website at Hamer Technology.

It is not necessary for you to register with us in order to access this website. But if you do register it will allow us to personalise our services and offer you some additional benefits.

If you do register, you are responsible for protecting your password and user name and must not share them with or disclose them to anyone else.

When you register, the basic personal information about you which we collect is: your name; your user type (eg Student Access Centre, IStudent Support Officer and member of the public); your e-mail address; your user ID and password. Depending on what you are registering for, additional information may be collected from you.

We use this information to improve our services to you, for example, by providing you by e-mail with an update of information about our services and products.

Changing the information we hold about you

If you would like to change the registration information we hold about you or want to it to be removed from our registration database, you may do so by returning to the personalisation area and changing or removing your details as you wish.

Third Parties

We do not at present forward the information collected about you to any third parties except where required by law to do so. However, we reserve the right to change this position at any time. If Hamer Technology choose to employ the services of a third party it will inform you, but the change will only apply in relation to information which we collect from you after we have informed you of the change. We will not disclose any information we have already collected about you without your consent other than where required to do so by law. At all times, the Hamer Technology will control and be responsible for the use of your information.

Cookies

When you visit this website we issue a "cookie" to your computer. This is a small program containing a unique code that allows us to identify your computer. The cookie is used to note the different areas of our website service which have recently been accessed through your computer. This can only be done in relation to this website service and our website service at <http://www.hamer-technology.co.uk> and not in relation to any other sites you might visit.

Information collected in this way is used to develop and manage our online services. The cookie alone contains no information which can identify you personally. However, when you register on this website and our website at <http://www.hamer-technology.co.uk> the cookie will be combined with the personal information that you have provided as part of your registration. If you wish, you are able to set up your computer to refuse to accept cookies.

Changes to Privacy Policy

The internet and data privacy best practice are both developing. We therefore reserve the right to revise this policy at any time. If this privacy policy changes in any way, we will place an updated version on this page. Regularly reviewing this page ensures you are always aware of what information we collect, how we use it and under what circumstances, if any, we will share it with other parties.

Consent

By using this website and the website at <http://www.hamer-technology.co.uk> you consent to the collection and use of your personal information in the manner set out above.
